Family Bible Camp Leadership — C

Evening Preacher
Alfonzo Pagan

Pastor Alfonso Pagan was born in Ponce, Puerto Rico in 1970. He came to the U.S. in 1983 and has lived in Jamestown since then, graduating from Jamestown High School in 1989. Alfonso graduated from Bible College in 1997 and is currently the pastor of Nueva Vida Covenant Church in Jamestown. He is working towards his Master in Divinity Degree from North Park Theological Seminary and also serves as the Hispanic chaplain at the Chautauqua County Jail, ministering primarily to Spanish speaking inmates. Pastor Alfonso serves on the boards of Joint Neighborhood Project and United Way of Southern Chautauqua, coaches little league and above all is a proud father of three beautiful children ages 17, 15, 14; as well as a husband to a lovely wife. The Kingdom of God is his passion and he will be teaching about it this summer at Camp Findley.

Bible Hour Teacher
Brian Russel

Brian Russell (Ph.D. Union Theological Seminary in Virginia) serves as Professor of Biblical Studies on the Orlando campus of Asbury Theological Seminary. Brian is married to Jackie Russell and they have two young daughters (Micaela and Katrina). Brian enjoys having fun with his family, conspiring with friends, writing, and inspiring others to dream big and live boldly for God. He is an expert in biblical interpretation and has published both scholarly studies and curriculum resources. You can engage his current thinking on his website: <http://realmealministries.org/WordPress>. Brian is passionate about the mission of God's people and empowering God's people to read the Scriptures as the fuel to drive the Church to make disciples of all nations.

Disciple Hour Speaker
Jessica Whittemore

Jessica Whittemore is an author and speaker with a strong passion for the Word of God. With wit and insight, she shares the joys, heartaches, and triumphs of her life in Christ in order to reveal the healing truth of our complete acceptance and significance in the Kingdom of God. Jessica lives in rural Pennsylvania with her husband and their three children. She holds a Master's Degree in Education with a concentration in Temperament Studies and has enjoyed speaking to churches, schools, businesses, women's groups, and universities for over a decade.
